

Having fun in Hollywood!

The Entertainment Capital of the World is at your fingertips when you stay at conveniently located Hollywood Bed & Breakfast.

Built in 1912 near the present Coliseum, the house was cut in half and moved to Hollywood after WW2. Your hosts, Nina and William, are both artists that enjoy creating with recycled objects. Nina is also an accomplished mosaicist and William is developing an artists retreat in the Sierras. They both know Hollywood well and can help make your visit as memorable as possible.
